HUNTINGTON BEACH, CA, February 7, 2018– The Ocean View School District proudly announces today that the Association of California School Administrators (ACSA) Region 17 has awarded two District leaders and a school-community partnership in its annual recognition program. Ocean View and the Assistance League of Huntington Beach will receive the Partners in Educational Excellence Award; Dr. Michael Conroy, Deputy Superintendent, has been named the Administrator of the Year for Business Services; and Marine View Middle School Principal William Lynch has been named the Administrator of the Year for Middle Grades Principal. According to ACSA, these recipients demonstrate exceptional leadership, collaboration, and a commitment to quality education programs and student achievement.

“What each of these individuals and the Assistance League represent are a laser focus on the importance of education, innovation, and collaboration with the ultimate goal of success for all students,” said Dr. Carol Hansen, Superintendent. “These awards set a record for our District, and we couldn’t be any happier for everyone in the Ocean View community. It’s a day of celebration!”

ACSA Region 17 will recognize all award recipients at the Orange County Administrators of the Year Banquet on May 7 in Irvine. Ocean View’s award winners are now in consideration for recognition by ACSA’s state Awards Committee.

In November, ACSA honored Ocean View Assistant Superintendent of Human Resources Felix Avila as its statewide Negotiator of the Year for 2018. He was recognized at an annual luncheon, where he was also a presenter at the ACSA Negotiators’ Symposium, in collaboration with Bryan Leipper, California School Employees Association, Chapter 375, Bargaining Chair and teacher.
