In order to be exempt from the classified service as a professional expert, an individual must be recognized as such by reputable members of his/her own profession. Evidence of professional qualifications must be presented to the Commission at the time the written request of temporary appointment is made.

Service as a professional expert shall not exceed six months except as may be approved by the Commission.

3.1.5 Restricted Positions and Employees

- A. If positions normally a part of the classified service are specially funded and, as a result of the special funding provisions, employment is restricted to persons in low income groups, from designated impoverished areas, or other criteria which precludes employment through the normal competitive process, the positions shall, in addition to the assigned title, be designated as "restricted".
- B. Persons employed in "restricted" positions shall be classified employees for all purposes except: (1) they shall not attain permanent status, (2) they shall not be accorded seniority rights, (3) they shall not be given provisional appointments concurrent with status in a restricted position, and (4) they are not eligible to compete in promotional examinations in the regular classified service.
- C. Notwithstanding Sub-Rule B above, employees serving in "restricted" positions shall, after completion of six months of satisfactory service, be given the opportunity to take such qualifying examinations as are required for all other persons serving in the same class in the regular classified service. If an employee successfully completes the examination and attains placement on the eligibility list, as a result thereof, and regardless of his/her numerical standing on the eligibility list, the employee shall be considered a part of the regular classified service even though he/she may continue to serve in a restricted position, and be accorded full rights, benefits and burdens of a regular classified employee. Seniority rights shall be counted as of the date of the initial appointment to the restricted position.

3.1.6 Weekend/Holiday Positions

The Board of Trustees may create a position or class of positions which require and permit the holders of such positions(s) to work only on weekends (Saturdays and Sundays) and holidays. If so created the Commission shall, in classifying the position:

- 1. Establish a salary scale which recognizes the peculiarity of the work and the days and hours required to work.
- 2. Exempt employees serving in such positions from overtime pay for work required to be performed on a holiday. The overtime exemption shall not apply to hours required to be worked in excess of 8 on any Saturday, Sunday or holiday unless the class is specifically exempted in accordance with Education Code Section 45127. (For example, recreation and security classes).

3. Ensure itself that the position(s) being created is not being created to avoid payment of overtime to otherwise qualified employees. If it does find that such position(s) is being created to avoid overtime payment, it shall refuse to classify the position(s) and will notify the Board of Trustees accordingly.

3.1.7 Effect of Exemption

Any position or employee lawfully exempted from the classified service shall be excluded from the benefits and burdens imposed by these rules, except as provided by law or the Board of Trustees.

3.2 GENERAL CLASSIFICATION RULES

3.2.1 Assignment of Duties

The Board of Trustees shall fix and prescribe the duties and responsibilities of all positions in the classified service except those of the Personnel Commission staff. When the duties being performed by an employee are found to be inconsistent with the duties officially assigned to his/her position, the Director, Classified Personnel shall report the facts to the responsible administrator in order that appropriate action may be taken.

3.2.2 Classification Plan

The Personnel Commission shall classify all positions except those which are exempt from the classified service. This includes, but is not limited to, allocating positions to appropriate classes, arranging classes into occupational hierarchies, determining reasonable relationships within and among occupational hierarchies, and preparing written class specifications.

3.2.3 Creation and Adjustment of Classes

The Commission shall adopt a position classification plan and may create new classes and abolish, divide, or combine existing classes within the classification plan as the needs of the classified service require.

3.2.4 Class Specifications

For each class of positions in the classified service established by the Commission there shall be maintained in the Office of the Commission an official class specification including:

- A. The official class title.
- B. A definition of the class, indicating type of duties, responsibilities and distinguishing characteristics.
- C. A description of essential duties to be performed in positions allocated to the class.
- D. A statement of the minimum qualifications for service in the class which may include education, experience, knowledge, skills, abilities, personal and physical traits, and characteristics.
- E. Any additional qualifications considered so desirable that any person considered for employment who possesses them may be given additional credit in the evaluation of the qualifications even though such additional qualifications are not a prerequisite to consideration for employment.
- F. License or other special requirement for employment or service in the class.

3.2.5 Interpretations of Class Specifications

Class specifications and their various parts are declared to have the following force and effect:

- A. The class titles used in the classification plan are to be used as payroll titles and in connection with any personnel record or transaction.
- B. Class specifications are descriptive and explanatory only and not restrictive. They indicate the kinds of positions that should be allocated to the respective classes as determined by their duties, responsibilities, and qualification requirements, and do not prescribe what these details shall be with respect to any position. The use of a particular expression or illustration as to duties, responsibilities, qualification requirements, or other attributes is typical or descriptive of the class and does not exclude others not mentioned but of similar kind and/or quality.

- C. In determining the class to which any position shall be allocated, the specification for each class is considered as a whole. Consideration is given, not to isolated clauses, phrases, or words apart from their context and from illustrative information in other parts of the specifications, but to the general duties, responsibilities, specific tasks, and qualification requirements as affording a picture of the positions that the class includes.
- D. Education and/or experience patterns represent minimum recruitment qualifications. Persons not meeting the education and experience or promotional qualifications where indicated, will not be considered further for employment in the class.

3.2.6 Allocation of Positions to Classes

All positions substantially similar in the areas of duties performed, responsibilities exercised, and qualifications required shown in the class specification, shall be allocated to the same class.

3.2.7 Classification of New Positions

Whenever a new position is created, the appointing power shall submit to the Director, Classified Personnel, in writing, the duties to be performed and the responsibilities to be assigned. For new positions, the Board of Trustees may recommend minimum educational and work experience requirements. The Director, Classified Personnel shall review the materials submitted and make such recommendations as necessary and proper and shall determine whether the position shall be allocated to an existing classification or whether a new class should be created. If the Director, Classified Personnel determines that a new class is required, he/she shall present recommendations to the Commission which:

- A. Include recommendations for a new class specification incorporating the requirements of section 3.2.4.A through F.
- B. Include a salary recommendation based upon internal alignments and such external data as applicable to designate proper salary placement.
- C. Include recommendations for assignment to an appropriate Job Series, the employee relations status (subject to negotiations between the District and the exclusive bargaining representative, e.g., unit member, Confidential, Supervisory or Management) and the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA) status (exempt/non-exempt from overtime).
- D. Prior to presenting the recommendations to the Commission, the Director, Classified Personnel shall provide reasonable notice of the proposed recommendations to the District and the exclusive bargaining representative.

Following the Commission's action to adopt a new classification describing the duties of the new position, the director, Classified Personnel shall notify the Board of Trustees of the action and the Commission's recommended Salary Range placement for the class.

(Reference Education Code sections 45130, 45256 and 45285.5) (Revised 07/18/02)

3.2.8 Changes in Duties

Any substantial changes in the duties of existing positions shall be promptly reported in writing by the appointing authority to the Director, Classified Personnel, who shall determine whether these positions should be allocated to different classes. The Commission shall be notified of the allocation or of the reasons for not changing the allocation.

3.2.9 Working Out of Classification

When an employee is working out of classification, the fact shall be reported to the immediate supervisor and then to the Director, Classified Personnel, who shall investigate and, if appropriate, report to the Personnel Commission. After review, the Commission shall take such action as necessary based upon the facts. This rule shall not be construed as permitting an employee to refuse to perform duties legally assigned.

3.2.9.1 90 Day Approval

Working out of class assignments are designed for temporary situations and shall not be used to place an employee in a long-term or permanent assignment in a higher or different classification. No employee shall be assigned to work out of class for more than ninety (90) days in one fiscal year without prior approval of the Personnel Commission. An example of the kind of exemption allowed by the Commission would be the temporary replacement of an employee on a long-term illness leave where the employee is assigned to work out of class for the duration of the absent employee's leave.

3.2.9.2 Duties Inconsistent Within Assigned Classification

An employee shall not be required to work out of classification for more than 5 days within a 15 calendar day period, except that an employee may be required to perform duties inconsistent with those assigned for a period of more than 5 days within a 15 calendar day period provided salary is adjusted upward for the entire period the employee is required to work out of classification.

3.2.9.3 Salary Adjustment

Whenever an employee is allowed to assume, or is required to perform, all or the majority of the functions, duties, and responsibilities of a higher classification, his/her salary shall be adjusted upward to the salary range of the higher classification, and then to the step of that range that will provide the employee at least a 5% salary increase. An employee may receive less than a 5% increase if the top step of the higher classification's salary range is less than 5% above the employee's regular salary. In that instance the employee shall be placed at said top step.

3.2.10 Review of Positions

The Director, Classified Personnel shall review the duties and responsibilities of positions as necessary to determine their proper classification and shall cause all positions to be reviewed at least once every three years.

If the Director, Classified Personnel finds that a position or positions should be reclassified, the administration shall be advised of this finding. If the administration does not revise the duties to fit within the current classification, the Director, Classified Personnel shall report his/her findings and recommendations to the Commission.

3.3 RECLASSIFICATION

3.3.1 Basis for Reclassification

The basis for reclassification of any position must be a gradual accretion of duties and not a sudden change occasioned by a re-organization or the assignment of completely new duties and/or responsibilities.

3.3.2 Requests for Study

Requests for classification study of existing positions shall be presented to the Director, Classified Personnel together with a statement of the reasons for requesting the study.

Requests for study may be initiated by the administration with approval of the Superintendent or by employees or employee organizations.

3.3.3 Effective Date of Reclassification

Reclassification of a position shall become effective on the date prescribed by the Commission and shall not have retroactive effect. Effective dates may be set sufficiently in the future to allow time for examinations to be completed.

3.3.4 Effect on Incumbents

Incumbents of positions reclassified upward who have a continuous employment record of two or more years in one or more of the positions being reclassified shall be reclassified without examination, provided the last performance report in the incumbent's personnel file is satisfactory.

Incumbents of positions who have been in the class less than two years and whose last performance report is satisfactory will be granted status in the higher class upon passing a competitive examination or comparable qualifying examination for the higher class as determined by the Personnel Commission.

A qualifying examination under this rule is defined as one in which only incumbents of reclassified positions may compete. Incumbents must meet the minimum qualifications, and the examination shall be rated as "passing" or "not passing" rather than by a numerical score. The Commission shall determine those instances when equity and the good of the service require the holding of such examinations. Incumbents who are unsuccessful on an examination may be transferred, demoted or laid off.

An employee who has been reclassified upward shall be ineligible to again be reclassified upward until at least two years have elapsed from the last upward reclassification.

In the event of reclassification of a position to a lower class, the incumbent shall be reassigned to another position in the higher class if such a position is vacant anywhere in the classified service; or

1. The incumbent shall have the right to displace an employee in the same class with lower seniority in the class; and/or
2. The incumbent shall have the right to displace an employee with lower seniority in any equal or lower class in which the incumbent formerly served and held permanent status; and/or
3. The incumbent accepts the reclassification of his/her position.

Incumbents of positions reclassified to a class of the same level shall be granted status in the new class without further examination.

(Reference Education Code 45285 + AB 1070) (Revised 10/09/03)

3.3.5 Reemployment List for Displaced Incumbents

Any displacement of a permanent employee resulting from a reclassification of a position, positions, or class of positions shall be considered a layoff for lack of work, and an appropriate reemployment list will be established in accordance with these rules.

This rule shall be followed in all instances of reclassification whether it results in upgrading, downgrading, lateral class movement, bumping, or complete displacement of incumbents.

3.4 REORGANIZATION

Positions created or changed as a result of reorganization or the assignment of completely new duties/responsibilities or duties/responsibilities unrelated to those which the position was classified to perform shall be filled through the normal selection process as provided in these rules.

(Reference Education Code sections 45285 and 45285.5) (Revised 07/18/02)

However, any appointment made in the interim shall not be disturbed unless it was fraudulently made.

4.1.6 Applications Not to be Returned

The Personnel Commission determines those instances when equity and the good of the service require administering a qualifying examination. The examination is the same, or substantially the same examination as is administered competitively for vacancies in the same classification. However, testing is limited to permanent employees as authorized by the Commission and the eligibility list produced is an unranked list of those employees passing the exam.

All examination papers shall be graded under the direction of the Director, Classified Personnel or the authorized person or agency outside the District employed for this purpose.

CHAPTER 8: INSERVICE STATUS AND TRANSACTIONS

8.1 PROBATIONARY PERIOD

(Revised 06/14/01)

The probationary period is the final and most job related part of the selection process. Consequently, persons appointed from eligibility lists must successfully complete their probationary period in order for them to be considered both permanent and selected in their classification. Until the successful completion of their probationary period, persons shall serve at the pleasure of the appointing power. The appointing power shall notify all probationary employees of this policy and rule.

(Reference Education Code 45301)

This procedure, as related to obtaining permanent status in the classified service, shall not apply to positions in the Senior Management Service.

(Reference Education Code 45256.5(b))

8.1.1 Length of Probationary Period

A new employee appointed to a permanent position from an eligibility list shall serve a probationary period of six months or 130 days of paid service, whichever is longer, in one class before attaining permanency in the class and classified service.

(Reference Education Code 45301)

An employee who has been promoted shall serve a probationary period of six months or 130 days of paid service, whichever is longer, in the higher class before attaining permanency in the new class.

(Reference Education Code 45301)

Upon written request of District administration, the Commission may establish a probationary period not to exceed one year (260 days of paid service) for positions in management classes designated by the Commission as executive or administrative. Such classes shall be identified on the Classified Management Salary Schedule.

(Reference Education Code 45301)

The probationary period shall not include time served under emergency, provisional, or limited term appointment, but shall date from the beginning of service in a permanent position after appointment from a valid eligibility list or from the effective date of promotion.

(Reference Education Code 45260, 45261)

Paid sick leave or unpaid leave used by an employee during the probationary period shall not be counted as part of the 130 days or 6 months required to attain permanent status.

(Reference Education Code 45301) (Revised 9/6/12)

8.1.2 Rights of Probationary Employee

The Appointing Authority may effect the release from the position of any employee at any time during the employee's probationary period, in accord with the following procedures. The District shall notify the Personnel Commission Office in writing within three days from the date of each probationary release effected.

- A. Upon selection and employment, the appointing authority shall provide a probationary employee a clear description of their new duties and responsibilities and what is expected of the employee in order to be successful.

8.1.2.1 New Employees

- A. The Appointing Authority need not state any reason for the release of a new employee; however, such release shall not be for any reason prohibited by law. A new employee who is released during the initial probationary period shall be notified in writing of the action taken. A probationary employee shall not have the right of appeal.
- B. A new employee who resigns in good standing during the initial probationary period may, upon request, have his or her name restored in proper rank to the eligibility list at the discretion of the Commission. 8.1.2.2 Promotional Employees

- A. An employee who has permanent status in the classified service and who has been promoted to a higher class, may be involuntarily demoted during the probationary period (6 months or 130 days in paid status, whichever is longer) and shall be placed into a position in his/her former class. The appointing authority need not state any reason for the release of the employee; however, such release shall not be for any reason prohibited by law. The employee who is released during the promotional probationary period shall be notified in writing of the action taken. A promotional probationary employee shall not have the right of appeal.
- B. Permanent employees released during a promotional probationary period shall have displacement rights to a position in the last classification in which the employee held permanent status prior to entering into a promotional probationary period.
 - 1. Should that classification no longer exist, the employee may demote to any other classification in which they held prior permanent status.
 - a. Should the employee's classification no longer exist, the employee may request a demotion to a vacancy in a lower classification or reassignment to a vacancy in an equal or related class in which (s)he has not serviced in a permanent or probationary status provided (s)he is qualified to perform the duties and the appointing authority approves the demotion.
 - 2. Should the demotion result in separation from the classified service, the employee shall have the right of appeal to the Personnel Commission.
(Reference Education Code 45305)
- C. Should the work for which a probationary employee (new hire or promotional) has been appointed prove temporary instead of permanent as certified, and should the employee be laid off without fault or deficiency on his/her part before the probationary period is completed, the employee's name shall be placed on the reemployment list and time served shall be credited to the probationary period.

8.1.3 Duty of the Appointing Power

It shall be the duty of the immediate supervisor to evaluate thoroughly the work of the probationary employee to determine whether the employee is fully qualified for permanent status in the probationary classification. Performance reports will be completed on forms prescribed by the Commission according to the established procedures.

3. Examination content
4. Salary range

8.2.2 Request for Transfer (Bargaining Unit Employees see Contract)

No obligation shall exist to fill a position by transfer rather than by other legal methods of appointment.

8.2.3 Status Attained by Transfer

- A. A permanent employee shall retain permanent status upon transfer to another position in the same class.

8.2.4 Probationary Period

- A. A permanent employee shall not be required to pass an additional probationary period upon transfer to another position in the same class.

- C. If the reassignment does not become final and the employee is returned to his/her former class, the employee's seniority date remains the same.

8.2.7 Transfer or Demotion for Medical Reasons

- A. When an employee becomes disabled (as described by the Americans With Disabilities Act - 42 U.S.C. Sect 12101-12213) the District shall, if possible, make reasonable work accommodations which will permit the employee to remain in his/her current position.
- B. When an employee becomes physically incapacitated for the performance of the essential functions his/her job as determined by a formal job analysis and physical examination, and reasonable accommodation of that disability is not possible, the Assistant Superintendent, Human Resources, may accommodate the employee with a reassignment to a vacant position in a class of the same or lower salary level which (s)he has the ability to fill or for which (s)he may be expected to acquire the necessary abilities after a reasonable time. The Director, Classified Personnel shall be informed of any such accommodation and will inform the Personnel Commission of the action.

8.2.8 Voluntary Demotion

- A. A permanent employee may request voluntary demotion to a vacant position in a class with a lower maximum salary rate without examination if the lower position falls in the promotional line of the present class. Such requests require the approval of the employee's present Department Head, and that of the head of the department to which (s)he is to be assigned.
- B. Voluntary demotion is a privilege available to a probationary employee only in cases when (s)he would be laid off for lack of work or lack of funds.

(Revised 10/14/04)

8.3.1 Reassignments

(Reference Education Code 45261)

A. The Personnel Commission shall determine whether classes are sufficiently related to permit reassignment between them. It shall consider similarity of:

1. Duties
2. Minimum qualifications
3. Examination content
4. Promotional field
5. Occupational group

B. In general, more latitude in approving reassignment is permitted:

1. As the employee's length of service with the school district increases.
2. When the reassignment is based on layoff, reclassification, or health.
3. When no eligibility list exists for the class to which reassignment is requested.
4. When the employee's education and experience show the employee meets the requirements of the class to which reassignment is recommended.

(Revised 02/23/06)

8.4.1 Reinstatements

A. A former permanent employee who resigned in good standing may be reinstated to a vacant position in his/her former class and status within 39 months of the last date of paid service. If qualified, the employee may be reinstated in a vacant position in a related or lower class or to a limited term position. This is discretionary with the appointing power.

(Reference Education Code 45309)

1. Reinstatement of a former employee shall have the following effects:
 - a. Reinstatement to the former step in the current salary range for the class, or if reinstated in a lower class, to the rate closest to, but not exceeding, that of the step to which the employee would be assigned if the employee were reinstated in his/her former class.
 - b. If reinstated to permanent status, reinstatement of accumulated sick leave and seniority as of the date of separation.

An employee who has accepted a voluntary demotion in lieu of layoff for lack of work or lack of funds, or abolishment or reclassification of his/her position, shall be granted the same rights as a person laid off and has the right to be reemployed in accordance with his/her seniority in a vacant position in his/her former class within 39 months after demotion. Intervening reassignments to other classes shall not abrogate this right.
 - 1. If the employee has not been restored to his/her former class within 39 months, the employee is eligible for appointment to a vacant position in that class, without examination, for an additional 24 months; provided, that the same tests of fitness under which they qualified for appointment to the class shall still apply. The Director of Classified Personnel shall make the determination of whether the same tests of fitness apply.
 - 2. Employees who take voluntary demotions or voluntary reductions in assigned time in lieu of layoff shall be placed on a reemployment list for their former class in accordance with their proper seniority. For a period of 39 months, the employee, at their option, shall be given one opportunity to be returned to a position in their former class or to a position in their former class with the hours held prior to the reduction, as vacancies become available.
(Reference Education Code 54298)
- C. Restoration of an employee shall have the following effects:

 - 3. Restoration of former anniversary date, less credit for any off duty period in excess of fifteen (15) calendar days.

- D. Reinstatement and Restoration Request Lists
 - 1. The Personnel Commission Office shall maintain a list containing the names of former employees who have resigned their District employment and subsequently request reinstatement and whose previous records are such that reinstatement could be recommended when vacancies occur.
 - a. Reinstatement is the prerogative of the appointing power. There is no obligation on the part of the appointing power to fill a vacancy by reinstatement if it is preferred to fill it by some other legal method of appointment.

2. The Personnel Commission Office shall maintain a list containing the names of employees who have accepted a voluntary demotion for medical reasons, in lieu of layoff for lack of work or lack of funds, or abolishment or reclassification of his/her position and who are eligible for restoration.
 - a. Eligibility for restoration shall require a medical release to resume the duties of the former class without restriction, provided, however, that reasonable accommodations shall be taken into consideration.

Restoration is not an option of the appointing power. If a vacant position is to be filled, the person on the Restoration List or Reemployment List, if one exists, with the most seniority shall be appointed.

8.4.3 Resignations

- A. When a classified employee desires to resign from a position, the employee shall present a written resignation, stating the reason(s) and effective date of the resignation to the site/department administrator. A copy of the resignation shall be immediately filed by the site/department administrator with the Director, Classified Personnel.
- B. A resignation relates only to the specific position from which the employee resigns and does not impair the employee's rights to other positions which (s)he may hold on eligibility lists except that an employee who resigns shall have his/her name removed from promotional eligibility lists.
- C. Once the Superintendent or designee has accepted and set an effective date for a resignation, as authorized by the Board of Trustees, the resignation may not thereafter be withdrawn by the employee.

(Revised 12/11/03)

8.5.1 Layoff Procedures

- B. Employees subject to layoff shall be given notice of layoff in writing not less than 60 days prior to layoff, which shall indicate the employee's last day of work for the District in that classification.

 - 4. A permanent employee who is laid off and is subsequently reemployed shall regain his or her seniority date, which has been adjusted to reflect the period of time employee was on the reemployment lists.
(Reference Education Codes 45117, 45103, and 45286)
 - 5. When reclassification results in the merger of two or more classes or the separation of a class into two or more classes, the seniority rights of regular employees who are reclassified with their positions shall be computed from the date of their earliest entrance into regular service in such former classes.
 - 6. An employee reassigned from one class to another shall retain his or her seniority in the former class; seniority in the new class shall begin on the date of reassignment.
 - 7. In the event of a tie in a class, preference would be given to the employee with the longest total service with the District. If a tie still exists, the tie shall be broken by lot.

8.6.3 Procedure for Disciplinary Action - Permanent Employees

A. General Procedures:

For purposes of this subsection, "disciplinary action" means dismissal, suspension without pay, or involuntary demotion of an employee who has successfully completed any required probationary period.

"Emergency suspension without pay" means a suspension which is necessitated because the employee's continued presence at work would constitute a significant, unwarranted risk to the life, health, or safety of the employee or others, or is of such an outrageous nature as to require immediate removal of the employee from work. Unless otherwise provided for by law, the maximum time during which an employee may be suspended without pay is thirty working days.

The severity of disciplinary action shall be determined in consideration of the seriousness of the violation involved, the employee's overall record with the District and any mitigating circumstances. Some offenses may be the basis for disciplinary action, up to dismissal, on the first offense.

Before any disciplinary action begins against a permanent employee, except an emergency suspension without pay, the employee shall receive a written Notice of Proposed Disciplinary Action either by personal service or by certified mail issued at least fifteen (15) working days prior to the proposed effective date, which shall contain:

1. A statement of the specific charge(s) (Cause or Causes for Disciplinary Action) against the employee.
2. The specific acts or omissions upon which the proposed disciplinary action is based, referenced back to the specific charge against the employee; and
3. Notice that copies of all documents supporting the proposed disciplinary action are available for the employee's review; and
4. Notice of the date the proposed action will be presented to the Board; and
5. Notice of the employee's right to respond, within ten (10) working days, either orally or in writing prior to the effective date of the proposed action; and that failure to respond will constitute a waiver of the right to respond.

B. Employee's Right to Respond - (Predisciplinary Hearing): (Section 8.6.3.B added 08/09/07)

1. PREDISCIPLINARY HEARING REQUEST: If the employee submits a request to respond to the charges within ten (10) working days after receipt of the Notice of Proposed Disciplinary Action the employee shall have a right to meet with the Superintendent or designee, and the effective date of the proposed disciplinary action shall be stayed pending the outcome of the predisciplinary hearing process. The employee shall be allowed to respond to the charges prior to the Superintendent's recommendation of disciplinary action to the Board of Trustees.

(REFERENCE: Skelly v. State Personnel Board, 15 Cal.3d 194 (1975))

2. NOTIFICATION OF THE TIME, PLACE AND DATE OF THE PREDISCIPLINARY HEARING TO EMPLOYEE: The District shall coordinate the scheduling of the Predisciplinary Hearing. The District shall notify the employee in writing of the time, date, and place of the Predisciplinary Hearing. Notification shall be either in person or sent by Certified Mail (Return Receipt Requested). This requirement will be deemed to have been met if the notification of the Predisciplinary Hearing is sent Certified Mail to the last known home address on file in the District Human Resources Office. Failure of the employee to retrieve delivered mail, or respond to notifications by the U.S. Postal Service of attempted delivery shall not be grounds for voiding notification, or the staying of the time lines outlined in these Rules. For purposes of this Rule, if a notice is mailed, as indicated above, the second working day following the postmark date of the notice shall be considered to be the official date of receipt.
 3. EMPLOYEE SHALL HAVE THE OPPORTUNITY TO RESPOND TO CHARGES: The employee shall have the opportunity to respond to all charges. However, the Predisciplinary Hearing is not an evidentiary hearing. The employee will not be allowed to call or examine witnesses.
 4. RIGHT TO REPRESENTATION: The employee may be represented by legal counsel, union representative, or any other person designated by the employee. If the employee fails to appear, the Superintendent may recommend the proposed disciplinary action to the Board of Trustees.
 5. SUPERINTENDENT OR DESIGNEE'S DECISION: The Superintendent or designee shall issue a written decision within five (5) working days after the conclusion of the Predisciplinary Hearing, to either implement the proposed disciplinary action, to modify the proposed disciplinary action, or to rescind and halt the proposed disciplinary action. The Superintendent or designee shall not act to provide for a penalty or disciplinary action more severe than that recommended in the Notice of Proposed Disciplinary Action. The written decision of the Superintendent or designee shall be filed with the Personnel Commission Office. The District shall be responsible for notification of the employee as to the decision of the Superintendent or designee.
 - a. If the employee requests a Predisciplinary Hearing with the Superintendent or designee, and at that hearing the employee and Superintendent or designee agree on an alternative course of action, this agreement shall be in writing. If the agreed alternative action requires Board of Trustees action, the Superintendent shall recommend to the Board of Trustees that the alternative action be approved. The Board's decision to accept or reject the alternative action shall be final.
 6. The Superintendent's or designee's decision shall be communicated to the Board of Trustees.
(Section 8.6.3.B added 08/09/07)
- C. Emergency Suspension Procedures:
In any case where an emergency suspension is effected, the District shall provide the employee, by personal service or by certified mail as soon as possible after the action is taken, with the following:
1. A statement of the specific charges against the employee, including the specific acts or omissions upon which the suspension is based; and

Within three working days following the taking of disciplinary action by the Board, the District shall submit to the Commission a complete copy of the causes and charges against the employee, together with all documentation it made available to the employee and copies of all communications with the employee regarding the disciplinary action.
3. Within ten working days following receipt of notification by the District advising that a permanent employee has been suspended, demoted or discharged, the Director of Classified Personnel shall cause to be furnished to the employee a copy of the charges against the employee together with an advisement of the employee's right to appeal the disciplinary action to the Personnel Commission.
4. Written notification of the employee's appeal rights shall be made by personal service or by certified mail delivery to the employee's last known address.
5. Written notification of the employee's appeal rights shall advise that appeal of the disciplinary action must be made within 14 calendar days following the employee's receipt of the notification and charges from the Personnel Commission Director, Classified Personnel, describe how the appeal is to be made, and caution that failure to make a timely appeal will constitute a waiver of the right to appeal the disciplinary action.
6. If the employee fails to timely appeal the disciplinary action, the disciplinary action shall be final without any action by the Personnel Commission.

8.6.4 Grounds for Appeal of Disciplinary Action

Appeal of disciplinary action can be made only on the following grounds:

- A. Procedures set forth in these rules have not been followed.
- B. The action was taken because of political or religious acts, opinions or affiliations, or unlawful consideration of race, color, national origin, sex, marital status, religion, age, or legally cognizable disability which could be reasonably accommodated.
- C. There has been an abuse of discretion.
- D. That the action taken was not in accord with the facts.
- E. The penalty involved is excessive.

8.6.5 Appeal Hearing Procedures

A. Establishment of Hearing Time and Place

- 1. If the employee has made timely appeal of disciplinary action, the Commission may investigate the matter and may require further evidence from the employee and/or the District.
- 2. If the employee has made timely appeal of disciplinary action and requested a hearing thereon, the Commission shall fix the time and place of the hearing which will be within a reasonable length of time following the Commission's receipt of the appeal. The Commission shall promptly cause the employee and the District to be advised of the time and place of the hearing; such notification shall be in writing, made either by personal service or by certified mail, and shall be made so as to provide each party with at least five working days' notice prior to the scheduled commencement of the hearing.
- 3. The Commission may, in its sole discretion, for good cause change or continue any scheduled hearing date. In such case the Commission shall give appropriate written notice of such change or continuance to both the employee concerned and the District.
- 4. Nothing shall preclude the Commission from scheduling a hearing on its own motion, absent any request from the affected employee and/or the District for a hearing.
- 5. Any investigation and hearing shall be confined to the reasons for the disciplinary action as charged by the appointing authority and the relevant defenses set forth in the employee's appeal and answer.

B. Conduct of the Hearing

- 1. The Personnel Commission may, in its sole discretion, elect to conduct the hearing itself or may appoint a Hearing Officer to conduct the hearing and report findings and recommendations to the Commission.
- 2. The hearing may be closed (restricted to parties) or open to the public at the option of the employee.
- 3. The hearing shall be informal, and neither the Commission nor its Hearing Officer shall be bound by technical rules of evidence in the conduct of the hearing. Decisions made by the Commission shall not be invalidated by an informality in the conduct of the hearing and/or form of its findings, conclusions and decision.

4. Any relevant evidence shall be admitted at the hearing if it is the sort of evidence upon which reasonable persons are accustomed to rely in the conduct of serious affairs irrespective of the existence of any common law or statutory rule which might make improper the admission of such evidence over objection in civil actions conducted in a court of law. Hearsay evidence may be admitted for any purpose but shall not, of itself, be sufficient to support a finding unless it would be admissible over objection in a civil action conducted in a court of law. The rules of privilege and of official or judicial notice shall be effective to the same extent as in civil actions conducted in a court of law. Irrelevant and repetitious evidence may be excluded. Oral evidence shall be taken only under oath or affirmation.
5. The Personnel Commission or its Hearing Officer shall determine the admissibility of all evidence proffered at the hearing, including its relevancy, weight, and the credibility of testimony and other evidence whether written or oral. Findings and conclusions shall be based upon a preponderance of evidence presented at the hearing.
6. The hearing shall be recorded on tape or by a Certified Shorthand Reporter. The party requesting the Certified Shorthand Reporter shall be responsible for all costs associated therewith. If the parties mutually agree to utilize the services of a Certified Shorthand Reporter, the costs thereof shall be shared between them on terms to be arranged between them. In the event that the services of a Certified Shorthand Reporter are utilized by the parties and a transcript thereof obtained, a true and correct certified copy of said transcript(s) shall be provided to the Commission and/or Hearing Officer free of charge.
7. Each party will be permitted an opportunity to make an opening statement (District first) and closing argument (Employee first). The District shall first present its witnesses and/or evidence in support of its charge(s) and the employee will then be afforded an opportunity to present witnesses and/or evidence. Implicit in the opportunity to present witnesses and/or testimony is the right of the opposing party to cross-examine witnesses and/or object to the introduction of evidence.
8. Each party may petition the Commission in writing on a form obtainable from the Office of the Commission for the issuance of subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and/or the production of documents. Such petition must be received in the Office of the Commission not later than ten working days prior to the scheduled commencement of the hearing. It is the responsibility of the party requesting the subpoenas to ensure that proper service is made thereupon so as to ensure the attendance of witnesses and/or production of documents in a timely manner so as to permit the hearing to proceed as scheduled. Should the need arise during a hearing to subpoena additional witnesses and/or documents, petition may be made to the Commission or Hearing Officer, whichever is conducting the hearing, which shall have sole discretion as to whether the requested subpoena(s) shall be issued. The Commission or Hearing Officer, whichever is conducting the hearing, may, on its own motion, issue subpoenas and cause same to be served.
9. Both the District and the employee may be represented by counsel or other designated representative of their choice.

10. The Commission or Hearing Officer may permit an amendment of the charges at any time prior to the Commission reaching a decision. If such amendment is permitted and determined by the Commission or Hearing Officer to be substantial and requiring an opportunity for the employee to react to the amendment, the employee shall be given notice of the amendment, and be given an appropriate time in which to respond to the amendment. The Commission or Hearing Officer may, among other things, grant a continuance of the hearing, reopen the hearing, or take other such action as will, in its sole judgment, ensure that such amendment is not procedurally prejudicial to the employee and that a fair hearing will be had.
11. In the event that a Hearing Officer is used to conduct a hearing, his/her findings of fact and recommendations shall be submitted to the Commission no more than forty-five(45) working days following the conclusion of the taking of testimony and evidence or the date established for the submission of post-hearing briefs, whichever is later. The Commission may accept, reject, or amend any of the findings or recommendations. If the Commission does not accept the findings and recommendations as presented, the Commission shall review the record of the hearing or investigation, or the Commission may order a supplementary hearing or investigation before rendering a decision different than that recommended by the Hearing Officer.
12. In the event the Commission conducts a hearing, the Commission shall render its decision as soon as possible.
13. Whether the hearing is held in public or closed session, the Commission, after conclusion of the hearing, may deliberate to reach its decision in closed session. No persons other than members of the Commission, its counsel or advisor, and its staff, shall be permitted to participate in the deliberations. The Director, Classified Personnel shall not advise or make recommendations to the Commission or participate in its closed session deliberations if the Director, Classified Personnel is the party who brought the action against the employee.
14. The Commission may sustain or reject, in whole or in part, any or all of the charges filed against the employee. It may sustain, reject or modify the disciplinary action invoked against the employee, however, it may not provide for discipline more stringent than that invoked by the District.
15. If the disciplinary action is not sustained, and/or the penalty imposed is rejected or modified, the Commission's decision shall set forth the appropriate remedy, which may include determining the effective date the employee is to be reinstated, which may be any time on or after the date of disciplinary action, payment of all or part of the employee's full compensation from the time of suspension, demotion or dismissal, and/or other measures as may be necessary to effect a just settlement of the appeal consistent with the Commission's findings.
16. The decision shall set forth which charges, if any, are sustained, and the reasons therefore. A copy of the decision shall be filed with the Board of Trustees and a copy delivered to the employee or mailed to the employee's last known address by certified mail no later than 15 working days following the Commission's deliberations and rendering its decision.
17. The Commission's decision shall be final and shall not be subject to review, modification or reversal by the District's Board of Trustees.

8.6.6 Effect of Dismissal Action

Dismissal of any employee shall, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission:

- A. Constitute a dismissal from any and all positions which the employee may hold and/or have held in the classified service.
- B. Result in the automatic removal of the employee's name from any and all employment lists on which it may appear. The employee may not thereafter take any examinations offered by the District without prior written consent of the District.
- C. Terminate the salary of the employee as of the date of dismissal except that the employee shall be eligible to receive any unpaid salary, accumulated unused vacation, and all accumulated unused overtime earned as of the date of the dismissal.

- A. A permanent employee shall earn paid sick leave at the rate of one day for each month of service not to exceed a total of 12 days a year. A permanent employee working less than 12 months a year shall earn sick leave as follows:
- | | |
|--------------------|------------------|
| 10 month employees | 10 days per year |
| 11 month employees | 11 days per year |
| 12 month employees | 12 days per year |
- B. A probationary employee earns one calendar day of paid sick leave per month during the probationary period (6 days) credited to the employee's account at the time of employment. Should the employee fail to successfully complete his or her probationary period, an adjustment may be made in the employee's final pay warrant for any excess of sick leave taken but not earned.
- C. If an employee does not use the full amount of sick leave earned in any year, the amount not used shall be accumulated without limit. Employees cannot be reimbursed for accumulated sick leave.
- D. At the beginning of each fiscal year, the sick leave "bank" of the employee shall be increased by the number of days of paid sick leave which (s)he would normally earn in the ensuing fiscal year. An employee's sick leave "bank" shall be adjusted if a change of assignment alters the amount of sick leave earnable.
- E. If an employee has used his or her full amount of sick leave for the fiscal year, and then terminates prior to earning the full 12 days, the unearned used days of such leave are deducted from the employee's final pay warrant.
- F. Pay for any day of sick leave used shall be the same pay the employee would have received if the employee had worked that day.
- G. In order to receive compensation while absent on sick leave, an employee (or authorized representative) must notify his or her supervisor of the absence before or within the first working hour of the first day absent. An exception to this is the Transportation Department in which case the time set by the Director of Transportation will be in effect.
- H. In cases where more than one day of sick leave is used, at least one working day prior to his or her expected return to work the employee shall notify his or her supervisor in order that the services of any substitute employed to fill in for the absent employee may be terminated. If the employee fails to notify his or her supervisor, and both the employee and the substitute report, the substitute is entitled to the assignment, and the employee shall not receive pay for that day.
- I. When an employee returns to work from an absence (s)he shall complete a certificate of absence on a form prescribed by the District. The Principal or Department Head is authorized to require further evidence or proof of reasons for absence, if deemed necessary.
- J. The District may require employees to report absences by utilizing an automated telephone absence notification system.

8.7.2 Long Term Sick Leave

If an absence is due to illness, which is not an industrial accident/illness, an employee has the option of using accumulated vacation following expiration of all accrued sick leave or retaining his or her vacation and receiving only differential pay. Differential pay is pay equal to the difference between the salary paid the substitute filling the position and an employee's regular salary.

If the absence is the result of an industrial accident/illness, the employee must use accumulated sick leave, vacation and any other paid leave before receiving differential pay.

8.7.3 Additional Sick Leave

- A. After exhaustion of paid sick leave, an employee who remains too ill or injured to work may, upon request, use accumulated vacation to avoid leave without pay.
- B. After exhaustion of all paid leave, a permanent employee may be placed on additional leave upon request and with the approval of the Board of Trustees. The additional leave may be paid or unpaid and may be extended for any period not to exceed 12 months. If placed on unpaid leave, the employee shall not again become eligible for paid leave because of the commencement of a new fiscal year until (s)he has rendered service in that fiscal year.

8.7.4 Termination of Sick Leave

If at the conclusion of all sick leave and additional leave, paid or unpaid, granted under this rule, the employee is still unable to assume the duties of the position, (s)he will be placed on a reemployment list for a period of 39 months.

- D. Allowable leave shall not be accumulated from year to year.

When an industrial injury/illness occurs at a time when it will overlap into the next fiscal year, the employee may carry over into the next fiscal year only the amount remaining at the end of the fiscal year in which the injury occurred.

The amount deducted from sick leave will be only that necessary to provide a full day's wages when added to workers' compensation payments received by the employee, if any, from the State.
- F. After all paid sick leave has been exhausted an employee shall receive pay from accrued vacation or any other accrued paid leave credit.

After expiration of all paid leave the appointing authority may place the employee on industrial injury/illness leave without pay.
- G. When all available leaves of absence, paid or unpaid, have been exhausted and if the employee is not medically able to assume the duties of their position, the employee shall, if not placed in another position, be placed on a reemployment list for a period of 39 months. When medically able and available, during the 39-month period, the employee shall be employed in a vacant position in the class of their previous assignment over all other available candidates except for a reemployment list established because of lack of work or funds, in which case the employee shall be listed in accordance with appropriate seniority regulations.

Such modifications shall not extend beyond thirty (30) days, but may be extended with Commission approval. In no case will restrictions be accommodated for a period of over six (6) months.

8.8.5 Rights upon Return from Leave

- A. Upon return to service from any paid leave resulting from industrial injury/illness, an employee shall be assigned to a vacant position in the former class ahead of any employee with lesser seniority.
 - 1. If no vacancy exists in the employee's former class, the employee may displace the most recently appointed employee in the class having less seniority.
 - 2. If an employee's class has ceased to exist, the employee may be reassigned or placed on a suitable reemployment list.
- B.
